

2022 Idaho Safety & Resilience Conference

Boise, Idaho | June 1 & 2, 2022 | LIVE at the Riverside Hotel

Call for Presentation Proposals

The Idaho Council on Domestic Violence and Victim Assistance (ICDVVA) funds, promotes, and supports quality services to victims of crime throughout Idaho. The annual Safety and Resilience Conference focuses on trauma-informed, victim centered training, best practices, and timely addressing emerging trends. The annual event brings together professionals working in the areas of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, offender intervention, law enforcement, and the judicial system to share knowledge, data, and facilitate collaborations that will strengthen systems and enhance services for victims of crime in Idaho. Attendance is typically 500 +/- . The conference focuses on practice and is not academic in nature.

ICDVVA and the conference planning committee are committed to including diverse participation and perspectives to provide insights and highlight innovative approaches that help meet the needs of crime victims and the agencies and systems that provide victim services.

Conference Tracks

The 2022 Safety & Resilience Conference will feature four 90-minute concurrent sessions in the following tracks:

1. Child Maltreatment
2. Domestic Violence &/or Sexual Assault
3. Criminal Justice
4. Impacts of Trauma
5. Service Enhancements
6. Domestic Violence Offender Assessment & Intervention

The conference will also feature two general (all attendee) sessions with keynote speakers.

Submitting A Proposal

Use the Call for Proposal Form to pitch a session concept. Proposals do not require a fully developed session. The Call for Proposal Form asks a few brief questions to describe the topic, its relevance to the conference session tracks, what attendees will learn from the session, and will provide additional information about the presenters, their affiliation, presentation experience, and contact information and the fee(s) (if any) required by the speaker(s). If you are submitting multiple session proposals, you must complete a Call for Proposal Form for each conference session.

Required Items

All proposals must include the following:

- Complete Call for Proposal Form
- Headshot photo for all presenters (.jpeg)
- Brief bio for all presenters (limit 100 words)

Proposals may also include copies and/or links to recordings of previous presentations by the speaker.

Evaluation of Proposals

Conference planning committee members will review and evaluate proposals using the following criteria:

- Topic supports a conference session track
- Originality, timeliness and relevance of topic
- Advances knowledge/approaches to serving victims of crime/represents best practice
- Presenter(s) knowledge & experience
- Whether training on the same/similar topics have recently been offered (2021 Conference)

Important Dates & Information

All conference session proposals must be submitted via email to info@icdv.idaho.gov by 5:00 p.m. (MST) on January 14, 2022.

Notification of Selection anticipated by January 31, 2022.

Presenter Responsibilities

- Please do not list co-presenters without their consent and commitment to participate.
- All selected presenters must sign a Memorandum of Understanding.
- ICDVVA reserves the right to revise presentation titles and/or edit the session description for publication.
- Presenters will be required to upload powerpoints and other supporting materials prior to the conference in accordance with ICDVVA deadlines.

2022 Idaho Safety & Resilience Conference

Call for Proposal Form

Presenter Name _____ Title/Position _____

Agency/Company _____ Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Select the Conference Track for this proposal:

Child Maltreatment

Domestic Violence &/or Sexual Assault

Keynote Address

Criminal Justice

Impacts of Trauma

Service Enhancements

Offender Intervention

Session Title _____

Single Presenter

Panel (List name, affiliation, and email of additional presenters below)

Name _____ Affiliation _____ Email _____

Name _____ Affiliation _____ Email _____

Name _____ Affiliation _____ Email _____

Please provide a brief outline of your presentation & how it relates to victims of crime: (limit 300 words)

What will attendees learn from this session/what are the learning objectives? (limit 300 words)

Have you previously given the same or similar presentation?  Yes  No

If yes, indicate where & when _____

Link to presentation (if available) _____

Have you previously attended and/or presented at an Idaho Safety & Resilience Conference?

Yes  No

Do you reside in Idaho?  Yes  No

*Are you requesting a speaking fee?  Yes  No

If yes, please indicate the amount _____

*Are you requesting reimbursement of travel expenses?  Yes  No

If so, please provide a detailed estimate of expenses.

**Funds available for speaking fees and travel expenses are very limited and are typically included for keynote speakers only. If you have a special circumstance and can't participate without a fee/travel expenses, please include an explanation for consideration.*

Please list any attachments included with this proposal.

Additional information you would like to share?

Submit completed proposal, bio, headshot, and additional materials to info@icdv.idaho.gov by 5:00 p.m. (MST) on January 14, 2022.